Membership Application Form

Membership
Ordinary membership	Friend membership
Ordinary membership of the Council is open to Buddhist temples, groups and organisations operating in Victoria. To qualify for membership, the group or organisation should unite a number of persons in a common Buddhist activity with or without a constitution or formal membership, but must have an executive body or person to act on its behalf.	Membership as a friend is open to individual Buddhists who support the aims and objectives of the Council. Friends of the Council do not have voting rights, but may participate in discussions at meetings and offer assistance to the Council. Friends will be sent a copy of each newsletter.
